To program means writing sequences of instructions in order to organize the work of the computer to perform something. These sequences of instructions are called computer programs or scripts.

Chapter 1. Introduction to Programming

Multiplication (often denoted by the cross symbol "×", by a point "·", by juxtaposition, or, on computers, by an asterisk "*") is one of the four elementary mathematical operations of arithmetic; with the others being addition, subtraction and division. The multiplication of whole numbers may be thought as a repeated addition; that is, the multiplication of two numbers is equivalent to ...
