Introduction. In chapter 3-4 of Galatians, Paul provides the doctrinal foundation explaining the relationship between the Law and grace. He provides six specific arguments " three in each chapter " in an effort to prove that salvation comes by grace, through faith, and apart from the works of the Law.

Galatians 3 " The Law & Grace, Part I - Walk with the Word

The outline of the Book of Galatians is quite simple. In chapters 1 and 2, Paul gives a personal vindication (defense) of his apostleship. In chapters 3 and 4, Paul gives a doctrinal explanation about justification by grace through faith. In chapters 5 and 6, he gives a practical exhortation to sanctification by grace through faith.

GALATIANS INTRODUCTION - Clear Theology

God is grace, merciful, redeeming grace. God is unbounded love. He is full of grace and shows us grace in Jesus. God is true, God is real, God can be known, and Jesus is the way, the truth and the life to see and know that. The Word because flesh in a way that reveals grace and truth. This is the glory of God revealed to sinners.
