Kellie's artwork brings a combined focus on nature and spirituality to different media and settings, ranging from exquisite oil paintings of Minnesota's flora and fauna, to her 'prayer-boxes': three-dimensional constructions that engage inspired contemplation of the natural world. In addition to her own artwork, she also represents some of the most talented and interesting artists in Minnesota.

Also sometimes called scripter, plotter or author, the writer scripts the workâ€”scripting may include plot, dialogue and actionâ€”in a way that the artist (or artists) can interpret the story into visuals for the reader. Writers can communicate their stories in varying amounts of detail to the artist(s) and in a number of ways, including verbally, by script or by thumbnail layout.
